Roxbury, June 22, 1868.

Dear Henry: H.C. Wright

What you say, in your letter dated at McIndoes Falls, in regard to a prompt removal of Deborah Webb from Ohio to a more healthy region than the one in which she is now sojourning, has been copied, and sent to her father, who has been visiting Baltimore and Washington, and expects to return to Philadelphia to-morrow. He writes that he has already communicated with Deborah on the subject, and advised her to come on and board awhile with the Kenyons at Pawtucket, if they can accommodate her; but he does not state whether it is his intention to go for her, or what his travelling programme is.

Thursday, I expect to attend the Laurel Festival at Newburyport. On Friday, you will doubtless find me at the Studio Building, Room 54, from 10 to 12.

Faithfully yours,

W. L. G.
